WASHINGTON, OCTOBER 4, 1879.

ONE of the rights of States contended strenuously for by the Democrats of the with the old flag kissing the breeze above late Confederate States is to borrow money and then repudiate the debt.

SENATOR LAMAR is said to have expressed his determination to go to Yazoo and publicly denounce the assassination of DIXON by BARKSDALE. On being informed that there is no law requiring an American citizen to commit hari-kari, he has concluded not to do it.

"GENERAL" THOMAS W. CONWAY, who is widely engaged in raising funds ostensibly adopted as a sort of flag of trace or protecto aid colored emigration, will learn something to his advantage by an early correspondence with the office of THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN. Any person knowing his whereabouts will confer a favor by calling his attention to this matter.

It is gravely announced in the Washington correspondence of the New York World that Mr. THEDEN "arranged" to have the HUTCHINS denial of his Southern barbarism interview printed in the New York Times. "Arranged" is good; it is a new synonym for using the bar'l, possibly, or for a dinner to the Democratic editor of the so-called Republican Times.

Ir begins to appear that TILDEN's bar'l has been tapped again for the benefit of a certain Democratic organ which is printed not a thousand miles away from Washington. At any rate, the said organ is now playing TILDEN-ROBINSON times, whereas before the Syracuse convention it piped KELLY jigs and sang the prescribed Tammany roundelays. Mighty is the bar'l.

THE New York "Scratching Committee," organized for the purpose of beating M CORNELL, is out of funds, and has appealed for contributions. Starting out to destroy the "machine," the first thing the young men of this asthetic political organization have done is to organize a machine of their own. For money is only raised for campaign purposes, to defray the expense of correspondence, organization, &c.," by means of the machine.

THE "FLATULENT FOOLS" who controlled journal this young dame, who rejoices in the the late Nebraska Republican Convention are not afflicted with loneliness. They shouted for GRANT more emphatically than their fellow Republicans in New York did fly after the following style: at the Saratoga Convention, and as two thirds of the Republican party is doing all over the country. It is to be feared from these facts that flatulency and foolishness are epidemic just now; but we do not apprehend any serious danger to the body politic as the result of this condition of

THE joint denial of an allegation by Til-DEN and HUTCHINS will go as far toward establishing its verity where both are well known, as the usual affirmative affidavit of an unimpeached witness. In this opinion we are sustained by no less competent Democratic authority than the New York World, jects of their anger: from which we copy the following:

Here is a pretty triangular issue of veracity, indeed. Mr. HUTCHINS of St. Louis says Mr. TILDEN of Greystone says Mr. SYPHER of Louisans says what is not tree when Mr. SYPHER says Mr. TILDEN says.— We give it up. Respectfully referred to Mr. Cygus W. FYMER.

It is now discovered that those Americans who join in "this GRANT reception busi-"ness" are enwaved in bowing "down in *sycophantic adulation before one man. " and that an unworthy one." But the discovery is made by a doughface mudsill, who is only satisfied when the people are engaged in adulatory worship of bloodyhanded Southern rebels. It is, therefore, probable that the American people will continue as heretofore to pay due, courteous and diguified respect to our worthy ex-President. They will most assuredly not permit foreign peoples to outdo them in this regard, and will stand acquitted of all sycophancy in the light of intelligent history, wherein the truth will be recorded that one hero and one statesman and one unselfish patriot has been honored alike at home and abroad. The Republic will never be endangered nor its perpetuity jeopardized by a bestowal of proper honors and dignities upon its faithful servants.

THE THEREN interview in which the old Cipher Ogre was reported to have denounced the political barbarities of his Southern fellow Democrats stands unimpeached by any respectable or trustworthy anthority. The efforts of certain Democratic organs to throw the responsibility of that report upon solutism of temper. Even in Republics, when the shoulders of Mr. J. HALE SYPHER are a few rule supreme over the many, it is quite natural that petty tyrannies should be created, and the members of them should be arbitrary, degmatic and unyielding.

The people of the District of Columbia simply Indierous, for it has already denied in these columns, as well as in those of other journals wherein the interview originally appeared, that Mr. Syphen bad should demand of Congress to be relieved anything to do with it. Manufactured from this character of government, through nterviews with TILDEN repeating this
